British Values at Kessingland Church of England Primary Academy

INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY

- Support pupils to develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and self-confidence
- Develop pupil responsibilities e.g. House Captains and school librarians
- Celebrate individual successes and achievements weekly in Celebration Assembly
- Encourage pupils to take responsibility for their behaviour, as well as knowing their rights
- Model freedom of speech through pupil participation and learner voice
- Have established School values that are known and communicated by all staff, pupils and governors
- Encourage and provide reasonable adjustments to enable pupil participation and inclusiveness in all areas of school life

DEMOCRACY

- Teach pupils how they can influence decision-making through the democratic process
- Involve pupils in the recruitment of new staff
- Encourage pupils to become involved in decision-making processes and ensure they are listened to in school
- Organise visits to the local council and Parliament or visitors to come into school
- Hold 'House Captain Elections' so pupils gain first-hand experience and understanding of the democratic process
- Encourage Learner Voice and help pupils to express their opinion, views and ideas
- Include the views of all parties in school decisions e.g. when choosing school values views were given by governors, parents, teaching staff and pupils.

MUTUAL RESPECT AND TOLERANCE

- Promote respect for individual differences through our PSHE and RE curriculum
- Take part in inter-school competitions
- Provide reflection opportunities in Collective Worship
- Organise visits to places of worship
- Celebrate different festivals e.g. Christmas, Diwali, Chinese New Year
- Understand how traditions are celebrated around the world – e.g. through Christmas performances 'Christmas Around the World'
- Discuss differences between people, such as differences of faith, ethnicity, disability, gender or sexuality and differences of family situations
- We raise awareness and understanding of Young Carers including whole school Young Carer weeks
- Open children's minds to disabilities and difference

RULE OF LAW

- Ensure our school rules and expectations are clear, fair and understood by all
- Help pupils to distinguish right from wrong
- Include visits from the police in the curriculum
- Foster links with our local PCSO
- Have a behaviour policy that uses the 5 point scale and is based on restorative practise
- Give our Year 6 pupils an opportunity to take part in Crucial Crew every year
- Teach rules and 'fair play' through our PE curriculum

Spiritual Development at Kessingland Church of England Primary Academy

	Examples of Spiritual Development
Outcomes for pupils	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Our pupils are nurtured to discover and develop their gifts and these talents are celebrated – community successes, pupil of the week. - Our pupils' work is shared with a wider audience – celebration assemblies, parent share days, displays in the local community. - We celebrate occasions when members of our school family have risen above the ordinary. - Achievement includes pupils' personal development and well-being.
Quality of Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Our curriculum gives opportunities to explore big ideas and not just in RE. We increase opportunities for 'I wonder....' questions. - Assessment for learning is used. Higher order questions provide opportunities for pupils to think about and express their own ideas views about what they are learning. - Reflection time and silence is valued. - We plan learning based on their children's own enquiry and using the pupils' own experiences. - We make sure the outcomes of 'big pieces of learning' are valued and give children the opportunity to share their work with others. - We provide opportunity for meaningful homework or projects that allow pupils to be creative and imaginative.
Behaviour, attitudes and personal development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Our pupils know that each day they can start 'afresh'. Our behaviour policy is built on restorative practice and forgiveness and reconciliation is valued. - Pupils and staff have an inclusive and accepting attitude towards others. - Each classroom has a reflective space where pupils can stop, think and reflect.
Leadership and Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - There is time for reflection and silence. - Our pupils express their understanding of our school's values and Christian vision through words, art and artefacts. We show we value these through displays in high profile places such as the school entrance. - Collective worship is highly valued within the school timetable. - There is a sense of belonging to the wider school community and Diocesan family e.g. DNEAT Marathon, working with other schools in the trust and the Headteacher attending Diocesan conferences.

Moral Development at Kessingland Church of England Primary Academy

Pupil's moral development is shown by their:

- Ability to recognise the difference between right and wrong, readily applying this understanding in their own lives, recognise legal boundaries and, in so doing, respect the civil and criminal law of England
- Understanding of the consequences of their behaviour and actions
- Interest in investigating and offering reasoned views about moral and ethical issues, and being able to understand and appreciate the viewpoints of others on these issues
