

Kessingland Church of England Primary Academy Strike Gold!

The school is delighted to share that Kessingland Church of England Primary Academy has been awarded the School Games Gold Mark Award.

The School Games Mark is a Government-led award scheme launched in 2012, facilitated by the Youth Sport Trust to reward schools for their commitment to the development of competition across their school and into the community.

On receiving the award, Adrian Crossland, Headteacher, said: "I am so pleased that the outstanding provision at Kessingland Church of England Primary Academy has been acknowledged by School Games. The school provides a number of clubs throughout the week and every single one is very well attended. It is fantastic to see our pupils enjoying all aspects of school sport and I am extremely grateful to every member of staff and volunteer who continues to provide these wonderful opportunities."

